

Adding a link to your post

Adding a link to your post is quick and easy. With the onscreen editor, highlight the word or words that you would like to use as a link. In the toolbar is the add a link button, click that button

When you click the add a link button, the Link display box appears. Within this box, there is a field for url. Place your link address here.

Once you have added your link, click OK.